A performance to celebrate the Universal Spirit of Music and the Arts. International musicians and singers portray a journey through the seasons from darkness to light, Winter to Summer. The programme will include music by Henry Purcell, Ernest Bloch, Vaughan Williams, Mitsikuri, Alberto Ginastera, Eduardo Martin. They create a tapestry of hope, woven throughout with the evocative, melodic genius of Schubert lieder.

The artist Rosie Mayhew will create a painting throughout the performance to illustrate the theme of the spiritual journey as it unfolds.

About the Concordia Foundation

The Concordia Foundation became a registered charity in 1995 with Yehudi Menuhin as its patron. Founded by Gillian Humphreys, out of her real concern that it is important to Build Bridges of Friendship and Excellence through Music and the Arts.

Their Mission is:

- To initiate and develop international educational and artistic links
- To build bridges between nations through the performance, appreciation and understanding of all forms of the Arts through the exchange of visits by artists between Great Britain and Overseas
- To encourage, support and promote young emerging artists.
